SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Our shift started with a longer briefing due to it being cut short yesterday. After briefing officers assisted swing shift with calls for service. A large church had to be cleared after an alarm occurred. This tied up much of graveyards after briefing. Officers located a stolen vehicle that was left unoccupied. This vehicle was being sought after by Monterey PD for a criminal investigation. The vehicle was towed and Monterey was notified. Officers stopped a vehicle for a vehicle code violation and the passenger had a federal warrant. The passenger was booked into jail for the warrant.
