SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Today is our last day of our work week. Officers started the shift with calls holding. Officers began handling calls leaving little time for them to get caught up from the week. Officers responded to an aggravated assault with a knife. The victim sustained a stab wound to his leg and was transported to the hospital. This is an ongoing investigation. The amount of case numbers that were pulled is not a good reflection of how busy our day was.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Our department conducted on-duty firearms training during our shift. As time allowed, officers participated in the training at the police department's range.

Calls for service were steady throughout the day. This allowed officers time to complete reports they acquired over their work week and completed follow up on investigations. Officers responded to the 2800 block of Geer Rd for the report of a vandalism. Officers arrived and located the individual responsible. The victim in the investigation wanted to prosecution and the subject was placed under arrest.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Night shift responded to multiple incidents, two of them resulted in the arrests of subjects. Officers responded to a disturbance between a male and a female. During the investigation it was determined the male had assaulted the female. He was arrested and booked into jail for domestic violence related charges. Officers responded a female walking around a neighborhood knocking on doors. Officers located the female who was laying down next to a bush. The female was severely injured. Officers learned that the female had been held and assaulted by her husband throughout the day. The female was transported to an area hospital for treatment to her injuries. The suspect was contained inside of residence and surround/ callout process began. After a while, the suspect exited the residence holding an improvised impact weapon over his head. He then threw it at officers and struck a patrol vehicle. Less lethal tools were deployed and the suspect surrendered being placed under arrest. TPD Detectives responded to assist in the investigation. The suspect was taken to an area hospital for clearance. Upon being cleared he will be booked into jail for 7 felonies and 1 misdemeanor, one of the felonies being attempted homicide. This incident took several hours and was resolved in a safe manner due to the team work of all shifts involved.
